

Pre-Post Plant Adaptation Assessment

Please circle the correct answer.

A plant that stores water in its leaves or stems will probably be found in a

- A. rainforest
- B. very cold area
- C. desert

A plant that has leaves with “drip tips” would probably be found

- A. rainforest
- B. very cold area
- C. desert

Which type of leaf would you find in a dry hot area?

- A. A large thin leaf
- B. A small hairy leaf
- C. A leaf with a drip tip

A thick waxy leaf might be found on plants in a

- A. rainforest
- B. very cold area
- C. desert

If a plant’s environment changes what might happen?

- A. It will turn into another kind of plant.
- B. It may become extinct.
- C. It can get up and move to a better spot.

Plants are used to make

- A. Food
- B. Clothing
- C. Medicine
- D. All of the Above