YOUR HOPES FOR THE ARBORETUM

You may feel the same way I do about plans and planning. Perhaps you've seen too many plans on the shelves of non-profits collecting dust. Or, like me, you've seen comprehensive "visions" that represent the needs of too few people.

But at the Los Angeles County Arboretum, we're committed to getting it right. In fact, our mission and future depend on it.

This fall we begin a comprehensive planning process based in the philosophy and methods of Peter Drucker, who understood what makes a select set of non-profits extraordinary in their service to society. Based on his model, our Strategic Plan, scheduled for completion next summer, will have two distinguishing traits:

It will respond to the expressed needs of the people we serve.

It will produce results that you will clearly see in the quality of our landscape and in the programs and services we provide.

As friends of the Arboretum, your input is essential to producing a plan that really works. We would love to know: What do you expect from the Arboretum? How can we better serve your needs? What is your dream for the Arboretum of the future?

We will invite you to answer these and other questions through an electronic questionnaire to be sent this fall. If we don't have your email address, I invite you to subscribe at www.arboretum.org under "newsletter" at the bottom right of the home page.

As always, I deeply appreciate your participation and support.

KIDS AND FAMILY

GOBLINS IN THE GARDEN

A HALLOWEEN HAUNT AT THE ARBORETUM

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30; 10AM-2PM

$5 per child for Arboretum member / $10 per child for non-members; regular Arboretum admission fees apply for non-members.

Celebrate Halloween and explore the wonders of the Arboretum grounds with activities for children ages 10 and younger, including nature-related crafts, art and gardening activities, botanical demonstrations, games, face painting, photo opportunities and lots of tricks and treats. Special surprises for all children dressed in costume.

For information go to www.arboretum.org

KIDSART AT THE ARBORETUM

Saturdays, September 9 – December 4;
Noon–1pm; 1:15–2:15pm

$145 per session. For more information or to register, please call KidsArt at 818-248-2764. Meet in the Oak Room.

Help develop attention, ability, and self-confidence. KidsArt teaches drawing so that students have the opportunity to learn fundamental skills. Students learn how to “see” in a new way. KidsArt teaches students how to measure with the eye, how to break something into its parts and put it back together again to make a whole picture. Students are shown that what may look difficult to draw at first glance, is really simple once they learn to see it piece by piece.

BOOKWORMS: A FREE STORYTELLING PROGRAM

Free with Admission. Meet at the Main Entrance.

Come explore the Arboretum Library and our great story trees. Enjoy plant and nature stories and a take-home craft. It is an indoor/outdoor program that will go rain or shine, so please dress appropriately.

AGES 4 – 6 YEARS:
Saturdays, November 6 – December 18;
10am–11am

$175 per session for members / $175 per session for non-members / $40 per class. For more information or to register, please contact Rooted in the Arts at www.rootedinthearts.com Meet at the main entrance.

Instructor: Phyllis Bradley-Parker

Sense Ability classes for toddlers and children offer a child and adult caregiver the opportunity to learn together in interactive learning environment. Children are guided through diverse outdoor environments and are encouraged to utilize their five senses to construct knowledge about the world around them. Children then engage in movement and visual art activities to express learned ideas. Art created by your child will be photographed and placed in an online portfolio that can be viewed at anytime by family and friends. Sense Ability classes help to develop your child's natural abilities in areas that will prepare them for educational success in the future.

FAMILY FUN CLASSES

$12 per family for members / $14 per family for non-members. Pre-registration required for all classes. Registration closes by 5pm the Monday prior to the class. Enrollment includes admission to the Arboretum. Call 626-821-4623 or 626-821-5897 to register. Meet by the fountain in front of the Oak Room. No Family Fun Class in October.

PAPER MAKING

Saturday, November 20; 10am–Noon
Ancient Egyptians invented the first substance like the paper we know today called Papyrus. The word “paper” comes from the word “papyrus”. Join us as we use recycled paper to make our own handmade paper.

ORNAMENT MAKING

Saturday, December 18; 10am–Noon
Go green during the holidays and decorate your holiday tree with recycled items. Find out how you can make ornaments out of light bulbs, toilet paper rolls and CDs as well as natural materials from the Arboretum.

FAMILY YOGA

Saturdays, October 16 – November 6;
10am–11:15am

$35 per series for members / $55 per series for non-members. $10 per family per class for members / $15 per family per class for non-members.

Join us at the Arboretum for a 4-week series of yoga for you and your family with Lee Rothman. The class will focus on basic yoga movements, chanting and games that will teach you new ways to interact and play with your children and get them excited about movement. Please bring a yoga mat, water and small blanket, and dress in layers.

ARBORETUM ADVENTURES

Free with admission. Meet by the fountain in front of the Oak Room.

Join your adventure guide as we explore the Arboretum. Each Saturday is new and exciting, and will have a different theme relating to nature. Come early as space is limited to 25. Children of all ages are welcome. Family adventures will go on rain or shine so dress appropriately.

CHARLES PERRY: HISTORY OF WINE MAKING IN THE SAN GABRIEL VALLEY

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24; 4-6PM

$25 members / $30 non-members. For more information or to purchase tickets call 626-821-4623 or email jill.berry@arboretum.org

Charles Perry, former Los Angeles Times Food Section staff writer and co-founder of the Culinary Historians of Southern California, will tell the story of wine in Los Angeles County, a remarkable tale with a fascinating cast of characters. Los Angeles County was the first place in the country where premium wine varieties such as Cabernet Sauvignon were made, starting in the 1830s. In the late 1880s, L.A. was still producing more table wine than either Napa or Sonoma, and its wines were being exported to the East Coast and Europe. The San Gabriel Valley was our premium wine country. On his 1,200-acre Santa Anita Vineyard, Elias Jackson "Lucky" Baldwin was one of the biggest winemakers in the county, which made him one of the biggest in the world. Wine tasting to follow.

Instructor: Caitlin Bergman with guest lecturers.

Permaculture is sustainable land use design based on ecologically sound principles. Its aim is harmonizing habitats and inhabitants, creating richly productive food systems.

Learn to create a layered food forest in your own backyard by working with nature, not against it. Discover a growing revolution in sustainable gardening where overlooked materials become free resources, yields increase, work is minimized, and the mutual support between people and the local environment is restored. Permaculture is an eye-opening set of principles and concepts that makes a tremendous impact on communities. This course offers practical project-oriented support training that moves beyond theory into hands-on applications. Participants will become certified permaculture designers upon successful completion. Caitlin Bergman is a Certified Permaculture Designer, consultant, and educator. For more information visit www.saypermaculture.com.

PLANT INFORMATION

Tuesdays, October 5, November 2,
December 7; 1–2:30pm

Free for Arboretum members / Free with Arboretum admission. Meet in the Bamboo Room.

Instructor: Frank McDonough

Stay on top of the world of botany and horticulture when Arboretum botanist, Frank McDonough, covers various landscaping and gardening topics plus the latest news in gardening and plant science. Frank will also reveal some of the more unusual and entertaining questions that he and the volunteers have received from the public during the previous month. Bring your own plant questions for discussion.

ORGANIC FRUIT AND VEGETABLE GARDENING

Saturday, December 4; Noon–3pm

$22 members / $25 non-members per class.

Instructor: Jill Morganelli

This class will teach you how to organically grow your seasonal production of fruits and vegetables. This session will cover winter crops and companion planing, the national organic program, weeds and insects, disease identification and treatment and prevention, irrigation, soil building and composting, pruning fruit trees, and how to gopher-proof your planting beds.

THURSDAY GARDEN TALKS WITH LILI SINGER

Thursdays, September 16 –November 11;
9:30am–Noon

$100 for the series / $20 per class. Reservations or you may pay at the door. ## DESIGNING A GARDEN FOR CHILDREN

September 30 with Laramee Haynes

This inspiring illustrated program offers the basic components (water, creatures, refuge, etc.) for gardens that kids can't resist, along with practical, inexpensive ideas for outdoor spaces that foster awareness, imagination and play. Laramee is a Pasadena-based landscape designer and contractor. www.hayneslandscaping.com

A DECADE OF CHANGE

October 7 with Emily Green

Learn what happens when you break from a traditional turfgrass lawn and let in mostly California natives, as witnessed first-hand in a West Adams garden. Emily is a garden and science writer. She pens the weekly "The Dry Garden" column for the Los Angeles Times and blogs at www.chanceofrain.com.

FIELD TRIP: INNER-CITY SMART GARDENS

October 14; 10am–12:30pm

Pre-registration required.

Our first autumn excursion takes us to two home gardens that artfully combine wildlife-attracting native flora with innovative resource-conserving design and a spark of whimsy. The gardens in West Adams and Oxford Square each surround a classic Craftsman-style home.

NATIVE TREES FOR URBAN GARDENS

October 21 with Lili Singer

Trees are the heart of the landscape, and California offers a wealth of native trees for home gardens. In addition to beauty, shade and color, these trees provide habitat for native birds and other wildlife. Learn which species are right for your landscape and how to plant and keep them healthy. Lili Singer is a horticultural consultant and garden writer, and special projects coordinator for the Theodore Payne Foundation in Sun Valley and leads the Thursday Garden Talks at the Arboretum.

LESS-KNOWN AND LESS-GROWN BULBS

October 28 with Dylan Hannon

This session features fascinating and unusual bulbs—living jewels for collectors' gardens. The program includes fabulous images and live bulbs and plants. Dylan is curator of Conservatory Collections at the Huntington Botanical Gardens. He collects, photographs, propagates and now sells rare bulbs, primarily from South Africa, South America and Mexico.

FIELD TRIP: NUCCIO'S NURSERIES AND A PEACEFUL GARDEN IN ALTADENA

November 4; 9:30am–12:30pm

Pre-registration required.

Fragrant Sasanqua camellias are guaranteed at our first stop: world-famous Nuccio's Nurseries in Altadena, purveyors of camellias and azaleas since 1935. Our private tour will be led by Tom Nuccio. The field trip ends nearby at a lush drought-tolerant residential garden, where old trees shelter a stone-walled "council circle," mass plantings of native iris and coral bells, and a water garden edged with monkey flowers and hummingbird sage.

THE ARBORETUM THROUGH TIME: PAST AND FUTURE

November 11 with Richard Schulhof

The Thursday Series welcomes the Arboretum's new CEO for a special program and class discussion. Citing precedents in England and the U.S., Richard will explore the remarkable evolution of the Arboretum, including plant introductions and research, and share his visions for the upcoming year and beyond. No doubt, he'll also mention a few of his favorite plants. Richard, a Los Angeles-to-San Diego chaparral native, previously served as Executive Director at Descanso Gardens, as well as Deputy Director at the Arnold Arboretum in Boston.

COLLECTIONS

BOOK GROUP: READING THE WESTERN LANDSCAPE

Wednesdays, October 6; November 3; December 1; 7pm

The Arboretum Library's book group explores the portrayal of western North American landscape in fiction, non-fiction and poetry. The group uses the Shared Inquiry™ method developed by the Great Books Foundation (www.greatbooks.org). The chosen book of the month must be read in order to participate. For more information contact Susan Eubank at 626-821-3213 or Susan.Eubank@arboretum.org.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 127 ACRES: THE ARBORETUM'S PLANT COLLECTIONS

SATURDAYS; 10AM-11:30AM

$5 member / $7 non-member per class.

Rain or shine. Meet in the Arboretum Library.

Instructor: Frank McDonough, Botanical Information Consultant.

This class is held in the garden, and requires some walking throughout the collections. The Arboretum's collection of over 18,000 accessioned plants is roughly divided into five geographic sections, two greenhouses, and several other specialty collections and exhibits. Botanical information consultant Frank McDonough will take you out onto the grounds to learn more about these fascinating and extensive collections. Be sure to wear comfortable, rugged shoes, a hat and clothes you don't mind getting dirty—and bring drinking water.

ARBORETUM EDIBLES:

October 16

Take a tour of some of the Arboretum's eminently edible plants; possible taste testing included.

WORLD WIDE WEAVERS

October 23

An introduction to the uses, history and anthropology of the fabric-producing plants that grow at the Arboretum.

PYROMANIAC PLANTS

November 13

A look at fire ecology and what plants do to survive and thrive in areas that are prone to frequent conflagrations.

WORLD WIDE WOOD

November 20

Discover the many timber-producing trees from around the world that are in the Arboretum's collection.

HOW LOW CAN THEY GO?

December 4

A look at plants at the Arboretum that use the least amount of water.

FRANKENPLANTS

December 18

Manipulating the genetics of plants hasn't always been as sophisticated as it is today, but the consequences of making a mistake have always been great. We'll look at the history and consequences of mankind's genetic manipulation of the plants around him as represented by specimens at the Arboretum, and examine the history of agriculture as it relates to you, the food you eat, and the plants you put in your garden.

Thursdays, October 28 – November 18;
1-3pm

$120 members / $130 non-members.

Meet in the Oak Room

Instructor: Gloria Whea-Fun Teng

In this introductory course the student will learn the difference between Chinese brush painting and other watercolor painting. The class will teach the beginning painter to use Chinese brushes and ink to create beautiful paintings on rice paper. At the end of this course, a completed painting will be ready to be framed and displayed. The instructor is a very talented artist who has taught a variety of courses over the years. She has also studied botanical illustration at Otis College of Art and Design.

WEEK ONE:

Introduction to Chinese brush painting: includes how to mix color, brush painting style and techniques, how to use the brush on rice paper, practicing on newsprint first, and how to paint a bamboo branch. First assignment: bamboo branch.

WEEK TWO:

Bamboo branch with leaf: using black ink, learn to paint a bamboo leaf, single leaf, double leaf and how to paint a set of leaves. The student will learn how to control the water with brush. Second assignment: bamboo branch and leaf

WEEK THREE:

Flowers: Rose. How to paint flower stems and buds; start to use color, practicing on a single petal flower, including different angles and shapes; learn the techniques of painting multiple layers of petals and different leaves. Third assignment: Flower: Rose.

WEEK FOUR:

Final Critique: bamboo painting in black ink, and rose in color. Student will complete one painting in the class, and it will be ready to frame when the course is finished.

EXTREME BOOT CAMP

September 6 – October 15;
October 25 – December 3
6-week course/5 days a week (2 days a week held at the Arboretum);
5:30–6:30am

Extreme Boot Camp–Monrovia is a highly motivating, confidence, and camaraderie–building fitness and nutritional program. Please call instructor William Morris at 626–256–9000 (studio) for dates, further information and to register. Mention that you are an Arboretum member for a discount.

OUR MISSION

The Arboretum is dedicated to cultivating our natural, horticultural and historic resources for learning, enjoyment and inspiration. Our vision is to be one of the world's truly great arboreta and botanic gardens—the garden which best reflects Southern California's distinct climate, community and openness to new ideas.

The Los Angeles County Arboretum and Botanic Garden is jointly operated by the Los Angeles Arboretum Foundation and the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation.

GETTING HERE

The Arboretum is located in the city of Arcadia, just 2 miles east of Pasadena. Exit off the 210 Freeway on Baldwin Avenue and travel south. We are also accessible by Metro. Visit www.metro.net for schedules. Bicycle racks are available in the parking lot. Parking is free. Handicapped parking is available.

MEMBERSHIP

Help the garden grow—become a member. A membership provides free admission to the Arboretum and over 200 gardens around the U.S. and Canada for a full year. Additionally, you receive discounts on selected programs and events, purchases at the Garden and Gift Shop and participating businesses. To become a member, visit or call the Membership Office.

GET INVOLVED

TRIBUTES AND MEMORIALS

Support the garden with a special gift for a loved one. For opportunities to give the gift of a dedicated bench or tree, tributes, memorials and donations call 626-821-3237.

VOLUNTEER

The Arboretum volunteers and docents provide hospitality, information and support staff in all areas of the garden. For more information about becoming a volunteer call 626-802-8471.

BECOME A DOCENT

No experience is necessary—just enthusiasm for plants and history and an eagerness to learn and share the knowledge. As a docent, you will spend time learning about the Arboretum's collections and local California history. If you are interested in becoming a docent, meeting new friends and becoming an integral part of the garden, please contact Nancy Carlton: 626-802-8471;
